CORSETTO — CRISTIÁN MOHADED 2026

2

Combining a disciplined frame with soft, pillowy volumes, Corsetto evokes a subtle tension between constriction and release, resulting in a distinctive armchair design that remains timeless. The armchair features a rounded, full-bodied structure, fully upholstered on both the seat and backrest, and supported by a rigid, solid base. The versatility of leather and fabric materials allows for a wide range of combinations.
